

New Dawn Catholic Pilgrimage Conference

8th – 12th July 2019

Wellsprings of Hope Trust, Charity number SC041561

Dear Sisters & Brothers,

This is the 10th year of New Dawn in Scotland Catholic Pilgrimage Conference held in St. Andrews, Madras College, Kilrymont Road, KY16 8DE. From the opening Mass until the closing ceilidh, the week is packed with an excellent input from gifted religious and lay people with the aim of refreshing and re-invigorating our Catholic faith. There is daily Mass and talks on a variety of topics, and workshops which address a whole range of issues relevant to the daily living out of our faith in difficult times. An exciting programme of events for children and youth is also offered.

New Dawn started in Walsingham in 1987 and has now spread to many countries. New Dawn's charism is to display the Catholic Church in all her splendour. We want to offer you a warm welcome at this year's conference and help you to experience more of the treasures of our faith. Our teams of well experienced ministry leaders will be there to serve you in the many ministries at the conference, including: - Children, Youth, Adult, Prayer, Music and Liturgy.

Each day has a Theme: - Monday-The Holy Spirit

Tuesday-Reconciliation Wednesday-Healing

Thursday-Mary Mother of the Church Friday-Evangelisation.

If you can't make all or part of the conference, then please join the many parishes on Thursday 11th July for our annual St Andrews Pilgrimage and Rosary Procession in honour of Our Lady and St Andrew which will follow the statue of Our Lady of Aberdeen and a relic of St Andrew through the streets of St. Andrews, culminating with Mass in the ancient Cathedral ruins.

If you would like advice on accommodation in St Andrews, please don't hesitate to call our New Dawn in Scotland office. Please pray for the success of the conference.
